Increase Your Income and Impact with Powerful Solutions from Phyllis Sisenwine: Master Certified Coach & Professional Speaker

In business, every sale counts and every missed opportunity affects your bottom line. Phyllis Sisenwine knows how to energize individuals and groups to take action, increase profits, and improve performance. She brings to her clients the same level of enthusiasm and energy she brought to her sales career.

As a top-producing sales professional for over 20 years in the office supply industry, Phyllis sold over $1 million worth of product each year and was often named "Salesperson of the Year."

Knowing that the skill sets she had were transferable and wanting to help other professionals achieve their goals, Phyllis became a coach and motivational speaker. A member of the National Speakers Association, Phyllis has addressed thousands nationwide. Phyllis is a contributing author of two books, a frequent guest on radio shows, and has published over 40 articles. Featured in Selling Power Magazine, she is recognized as an expert on business development.

Phyllis has helped to improve the business lives of lawyers, financial planners, entrepreneurs, executives and other professionals internationally.

Client Comments

"Phyllis is an excellent speaker because she knows how to connect with the audience. She is clear, concise and powerful. Her positive energy and meaningful content made a difference to our attendees. She is very effective and insightful, and delivers on what she promises. I've added her to our 'A-List' speakers and would definitely use her again." Charlene Holsendorff, Merck Women's Network Executive Officer, Merck & Company, Inc.

"Phyllis is a terrific coach – an excellent sounding board with a real no-nonsense approach. With her effective guidance, I can avoid getting stuck between analysis and action. She holds me accountable to my goals by believing that I can achieve them. She has helped me achieve more balance in my life as a principal in a financial management firm and mother of two young children."

Gina Moore, Principal, Aronson & Johnson & Ortiz

"Phyllis has made a direct impact on my business development, strategic planning, networking and general life planning. Everyone needs a coach like Phyllis." Debra Speyer, Esq.

"What makes Phyllis a great coach is that she pushes you to do your best and to maximize your abilities. As an excellent listener, she hears the problem and suggests practical ways to solve it. I have experienced great success working with her from being more organized and efficient to prioritizing my schedule and gaining new perspectives. She is also one of the most upbeat people I have ever known."
